Know the people who know workers' comp.®

Why businesses choose Summit:

- Access to specialists who have mastered every facet of workers' comp
- Our commitment to service and long-term customer relationships
- Competitive payment options, most with no money down requirements
- Online services make doing business with Summit easy

"Our goal at Summit is simple and meaningful. We exist to protect people. Unfortunately, people get hurt at work. Our job is to provide employers with the education and guidance they need to prevent as many of those accidents as possible. When someone is injured, we support both the employer and the injured employee as they navigate the recovery process."
