

Excess Workers' Compensation

Manufacturing and Industrial

Manufacturing powers our economy, and the workers who build everything from microchips to automobiles deserve comprehensive and reliable Workers' Compensation coverage. EMPLOYERS' Excess Workers' Compensation product is tailored to manufacturers, including electronics, food production, machinery, automotive and textile operations, providing a flexible, data-driven solution that helps to shield against catastrophic loss while turning risk into a strategic advantage.

With EMPLOYERS, manufacturing leaders gain peace of mind, measurable savings, and a future-ready coverage so they can focus on what matters most: delivering high-quality products, driving innovation, and keeping America moving forward.
