

Public Entities

Public services strengthen our communities, and the employees who deliver those services deserve comprehensive and reliable Workers' Compensation coverage. EMPLOYERS' Excess Workers' Compensation product is tailored to municipalities, public agencies, cities, counties, and transportation districts, delivering a flexible, data-driven solution that helps to shield against catastrophic loss while converting risk into a strategic advantage.

With EMPLOYERS, public-sector leaders gain peace of mind, measurable savings, and future-ready coverage so they can concentrate on what matters most: serving the public and building resilient communities.
