General liability

Protects your clients' businesses from another person or business's claims of bodily injury, associated medical costs, and damage to their property.

- Admitted
- $5 million revenue limit¹
- $5 million payroll limit¹
- Start-up friendly
- $350.00 minimum annual premium²
- No deductible³

General liability insurance is available in all states except Alaska.

Professional liability

Protects your clients if they're sued for negligently performing their services, even if they haven't made a mistake. Coverage also includes defense costs associated with a lawsuit.

- Admitted
- $5 million revenue limit¹
- Up to $5 million policy limit¹
- Start-up friendly
- $270.00 minimum annual premium²
- Deductible options from $0–10k

Professional liability insurance is available in all states except Alaska.

Business owner's policy

Combination of general liability and business property insurance. It protects your clients' own business furniture and equipment, as well as another person or business's claims of property damage, or bodily injury and associated medical costs.

- Admitted
- $5 million revenue limit¹
- Start-up friendly
- $500 minimum annual premium²

Business owner's insurance is available in all states except Alaska, Florida, Kansas, Ohio, Rhode Island, Washington, and West Virginia.

- Guidelines¹
- Damage to premises rented to you: coverage up to $250k⁴
 - Business personal property: coverage up to $250k⁴
 - Off-premises personal property coverage up to $25k

Cyber

Protects your clients against computer-related crimes and losses. These can include targeted attacks, such as malware and phishing, or a misplaced laptop containing confidential material.

- Admitted
- $5 million revenue limit¹
- Start-up friendly
- $270.00 minimum annual premium²

Cyber security insurance is available in all states except Alaska.

¹ May not be applicable to all professions. ² Premiums vary based on business need. ³ Certain classes of business may have a deductible. ⁴ See online appetite guide for full list of BOP guidelines.
